Easter 2017

AN EASTER MESSAGE FROM REVEREND PAM

“One of the greatest gifts made real to us in the resurrection of Jesus Christ is LOVE.

Our journey through Lent, Holy Week and Good Friday is perhaps the greatest example of unconditional love ever given and received. Through Jesus’ grace and love for us, we are taught to love one another. Before His departure, Jesus commands us to “love one another.”

There is something about our love for one another that is iconic, revelatory, and makes Christ present in whatever circumstances we might find ourselves. Jesus’ command to love one another is both our preparation for, and our participation in, His resurrected life here and now.

Love reveals the new heaven and new earth. Love is the gateway, the entry, into the new Kingdom. Love makes all things new. Love is both the means and the goal, a journey that has no ending, and a destination that has no fixed point.

The love Jesus commands and shows by example of His ministry, and then death on the cross, is independent of who the other is, or our feelings about him or her. It is not determined by our assessment of his or her qualities or lovability. It takes us beyond sentimentality, emotions, and familial kinship. It is less about a feeling and more about a choice. If we are Jesus’s disciples, we show it by choosing to love one another. The mark of Christ’s disciples is not what they believe, but how they love. Love is the commitment, attachment, and loyalty to another that is embodied and enacted in concrete ways. We do not believe or reason our way into loving one another. We act our way into loving another. That’s what Jesus did. His life, death, and resurrection are nothing less than the embodiment and enactment of love. You and I, His disciples, continue that through our love for one another.

It’s all pretty simple when you get right down to it. It’s about people, life, and circumstances. It’s a bedside vigil when all you can do is hold a hand. It’s standing next to another and listening to his or her diagnosis. It’s cooking and delivering a meal to one whose appetite has been stolen by sorrow. It’s the courage to sit with the pain and loss of another, knowing you have no idea of what to say or do. It’s about providing space to children who have a desire to learn to play a musical instrument, but may not have the monetary means. It’s the giving of one’s money to care for another whom we have never, and will never, meet. It’s a silent night of tears and prayer. It’s about giving to buy meals for Stella’s Circle Inclusion Choir; it’s about sitting with a resident in Long Term Care and helping them stay on task during the singing of hymns; it’s about sitting next to that person in church who seems hurt and lonely; it’s about a faith community providing food for body and soul.... it’s about the gospel in action.....it’s about making worship and work one.

These, and a thousand other acts like them, are the acts of love that have been done for us and, by God’s grace, we do for another. When I see these things happening, I see a new heaven and a new earth, and I know myself to be living in the new Kingdom. When I hear stories about these acts of love,

I experience all things being made new. This Easter as we shout “Alleluia! Christ is Risen Indeed!” let us focus our very lives on the one who continues to love us the most, even beyond all understanding.

May you experience the love of Christ in a new way this Easter Season. May the love of Christ find you when and where you need it most. And may you give the love of the Risen Christ this Easter Season to others who may need you most.

Many Blessings,
Rev. Pamela

Project Grace Report – Easter Visitor

Project Grace is welcoming spring with a busy and exciting schedule! We were thrilled to wrap up the winter term with a concert featuring our Project Grace Youth Orchestra and Choir on April 2nd and are looking forward to having the children back in the church after Easter Holidays.

Our Spring 2017 term will consist of after school lessons and orchestra, plus the return of our exciting Friday afternoon chamber music program! We are very much looking forward to an exciting partnership with the National Arts Center Orchestra (NACO), who have chosen Project Grace as their community outreach partner during the Canada 150 tour of the Atlantic provinces. NACO will be sending some of their musicians to work with our students and many of our teachers will be participating in workshops with the orchestra and its world renowned music director, Alexander Shelley. For many of our students, this will be their first opportunity to interact with professional musicians of this calibre!

The spring term will take place from April 24th through June 9th with the Season Finale Concert taking place in the Sanctuary at St. James on Sunday, June 11th. On this day, we will also be drawing the winner of our beautiful Painted Violin: a hand painted ½ size Yamaha violin which was painted for us by Cara Kansala of the Grumpy Goat Gallery. Tickets are on sale right up until the draw on Sunday, June 11th and we are hoping to sell all 1500! You can purchase your very own ticket for $5 – please visit our Facebook page (/ProjectGraceNL) for more information.

Plans are being made for our seventh year of summer music camps, with the goal of welcoming more children than ever before to the Project Grace family! We are hoping to offer multiple weeks of camp with several different themes, all suited to the wide range of age groups and interests amongst our students! The 2017-18 season is also shaping up to be a great one, with plans in place for our second annual faculty recital and exciting performance opportunities for our Youth Orchestra. We are aiming to recruit a large class of new students to Project Grace in the fall and are looking forward to having lots of enthusiastic new faces in our ensemble.

With each year, our little music program grows and has a profound impact on the families in our community. As always, we are grateful for the support of St. James United Church and its commitment to empowering children through the love and joy of music!

Message from our UCW, Easter 2017

March 20: The first day of spring and we are having a snowstorm. What joy is in the March snowmelt, when the morning sun starts spreading its warming rays over a land under snow, penetrating the crusted banks along the south side of stone walls and hedges. What joy to watch the water drip from the weathered eaves of roofs of houses and stores facing south. We may think of those spring days of splitting firewood by the woodhouse not far from our home. We know the brook will open from the thaw. We will see and hear the rushing, thumping masses of ice sweeping downstream with the current. During this month, the hours of sunlight will equal those of darkness, and the days will grow longer until the summer solstice in June.

March is a month of hope, of looking ahead, of closing the doors to winter and opening them to bright days of spring. Snow may yet sweep down over the land, but each day of longer sun brightens our pathway. It lifts our spirits and makes it easy to get around, which is very important for our older folks.

The UCW is looking forward to our usual Spring Tea and Sale which will be held on Saturday, April 8 from 2-4pm.

We just had a New To You sale, and St. James will be hosting a UCW rally on Saturday, April 22, from 11:30am to 4pm. We will then be winding down for another year with our closing dinner in May.

We extend a warm welcome to all women who would like to become a member of our UCW. You will find great friends.

As we enter into the Holy Season of Easter, we are invited to enter into the Passion of God's Messiah. It is a time to explore the reality and the deep meaning of the Suffering Christ. It is a time to remember and reflect upon what was done for you and for me. It is a time to ask ourselves: "What meaning do we find in the death and resurrection of Jesus for ourselves and for our world?"

Happy Easter to all, and hope the Easter Bunny brings lots of treats.

Betty Pilgrim
Co-President, UCW

EASTER GREETINGS FROM AOTS

The Men's Service Club extends Easter greetings to members of St. James United Church. Our fellowship group is open to all men of our congregation. We often have guest speakers for our meetings which are held on the third Wednesday of the month. At the March 15 gathering Rev. Roger Janes, Stewardship and Gifts Officer for the Maritime and NL Conferences, was our special speaker. Rev. Roger's thought-provoking presentation on the topic of Mission and Stewardship captivated his audience. Present for the occasion, as invited dinner guests, were members of our Clergy, Church Council and its Committees, as well as representatives of the St. James UCW. The subject of our guest presenter for the April 19 meeting will be Martin Luther & Protestantism - 500 years. The talk, scheduled for 6:30 pm, is open to anyone interested. The next AOTS Fish Dinner will be held on Friday, April 28, 2017. Tickets are available from Aubrey Hill and David Hapgood. We thank you for your continuing support of our

A MESSAGE FROM REVEREND ETTIE

Greetings as we draw near the Season of Easter.

Each year as we take part in the Lenten pilgrimage to Jerusalem – pausing for reflection here and there – often discovering new nuances in familiar passages of scripture – hearing and seeing with more mature ears and eyes the stories of Jesus' journey – finding renewed meaning in His actions, I believe, offers the opportunity to know closer communion with God through Jesus.

I am learning, through the ministry of pastoral visitation that to know intimacy with God is to know intimacy with God's people in the struggles and joys of the journey.

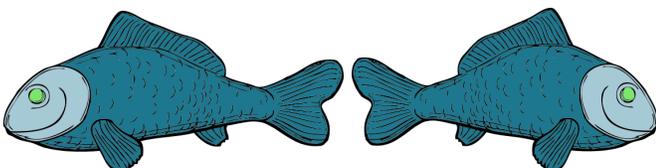

Serving as your Acting Minister of Visitation is my privilege. Sharing in the changeable happenings that meet us as we journey together is rich and fulfilling. Thank you for letting me be part of your journey. I look forward to continuing as Acting Minister of Visitation for the next little while, and I look forward to welcoming you at our next Seniors Communion Service Tuesday, May 16 at 2:00 pm.

The congregation is invited to join the church choirs as we reflect on our life journey and offer songs of praise, celebration, and thanksgiving for those who have played an important part in, or had a significant impact on, our lives. We affirm our own faith and trust in God and in God’s infinite love which surrounds us all. In this service, you are invited to celebrate the life, actions, and events of a family member, a relative, a friend, or anyone who has touched your life in a special way, by sponsoring a hymn to be dedicated to them. ### Message from SuAn in the office:

As we herald the remembrance of the possibility of awakening our human consciousness into great love and light, I reflect on my work in the office of St. James. More important than the organizing and paperwork are the folks who breathe life into the Life&Work. These are our volunteers. It is their devotion to the spirit of care and community that brings them here; in that way, each person is a living testament to their faith in a higher power that wakes us into life each day. Individual names are too many to list, so we have Volunteer Week, April 23-29, to highlight the importance of each and every one who gives their time and energy to creating a safe and happy environment for the flourishing of joy and peace, cornerstones of any spiritual practice. Please let me know by Tuesday, April 18 if you are able to attend our luncheon.

Wednesday April 26 at noon

Do you volunteer your time and energy at St. James?

If so, you are cordially invited to a luncheon on Wednesday, April 26 at noon, hosted by our Ministers and staff.

We do need an idea of numbers, so please R.S.V.P. your attendance to SuAn by Tuesday, April 18:
