

Life and Work - July 30, 2023

Flea Market: St. James United Church will be having a flea market in our parking lot on August 12th from 10-4. In case of inclement weather, it will take place in the auditorium. We will be accepting donations for the market, especially home goods (dishes, sheets, blankets, toasters, kettles, etc) up until August 9. We will not be accepting clothes or shoes at this time. Volunteers to sit at the tables will also be needed so if you are available, please let the office know. Thank you all for your support!

Congratulations to Quadrangle: A couple of weeks ago, Quadrangle opened its doors, launching their space as part of the Pride festivities. We wish them much success and look forward to getting to know them and the important work that they do in the 2SLGBTQIA+ community. To that end, the staff at Quadrangle plan to host an Open House for the congregation in the fall, held on a Sunday after worship. Congratulations to the staff and board of the Quad!

Have old glasses you no longer need? Reminder, we have a Lions Club donation bin for old eyeglasses that can be used to help others in need. The bin is located on the coffee table in the office area OR the glasses can be passed along to the ushers for placement in the bin. Please note this is for Glasses ONLY. They do not take the cases.

St. James Mini Lunches will continue throughout the summer months. If you are able and would like to help Linda on a Sunday of your choosing, could you please sign up on the sheet in the Fellowship room. She could use our support.

Sharing in the Celebration Church: Each Sunday morning during worship at St. James we take time for people to share something that they are celebrating, like a Birthday, Anniversary, Graduation, or anything at all! If you are joining worship from home, we would love to include you in this time. So, email us at info@stjamesuc.org with information on what you would to celebrate, and we will include it as part of our "Celebration Church" time during the Sunday Service! Let's all celebrate together!
