

Life and Work - October 29, 2023

We accept the following donation to the General Fund:

In memory of Rev. Ettie Gordon-Murray from the Agnes Pratt Home Foundation Inc.

Eventide Worship Service: There will be no Eventide worship service today, October 29, 2023. The next EvenTide Worship Service is November 5 in the style of Taizé. This meditative service of both silence and song will once again be dedicated to peace.

Remembering Loved Ones: This year we will take time to remember our loved ones a bit differently than the last two years. We invite you to bring a photograph of someone who has died. During the service, we will bring them forward and pause in thanksgiving. If you would prefer, email a copy to us and we will include your loved one in the service as well.

The poster features a dark blue background with a starry night sky. At the bottom, there is a stylized illustration of a town with a central church building, houses, and green Christmas trees. The text is arranged in a clear, hierarchical layout, with the event name and date being the most prominent elements.

Social Action and Outreach Team: We wanted to show our support and to help the homeless who are camping on Confederation Hill to demonstrate the dire need for affordable housing and public housing in our province and to push our government to act.

On Tuesday October 24, St. James' volunteers compiled needed items into 20 care packages (including 10 for women) and delivered them. They were very appreciative.

Thanks to the generosity of the donors, and to the managers of Piper's on Aberdeen and Elizabeth Avenues for giving us a discount. We were able to buy enough items to make 20 nice care packages.

We will continue to support them by supplying necessary comfort items, and in a couple of weeks, with meals. Please contact me to donate products or your time: (709) 682-3927 or robinbartlett1224@gmail.com.

Thank you! Robin Bartlett, Chairperson
