Celebration of Worship for May 4, 2025

The people of St. James United Church are eternal seekers who value diversity within our congregation, city and all of society. We affirm each person's uniqueness and believe that all persons deserve to be valued, treated with equity, and respected. We are all children of God, walking many paths of spirituality.

Further, we proudly and publicly declare our commitment to practice radical hospitality and strive in every way to provide a safe and supportive place for all persons to participate in the worship and work of our church.

Guided by the teachings of Jesus, we embrace all persons, regardless of creed, race, age, ability, economic status, cultural and ethnic background, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, or any other difference that has led to marginalization or oppression.

CALL TO WORSHIP

We come together, responding to God's call on our hearts.

We come as others came before us.

We come together to honour the Risen Christ in our midst.

We come to discern how to embody his way.

We come together to listen to the wisdom of the Holy Spirit.

We come as a family to give of ourselves in love.

* HYMN: "Come In, Come In and Sit Down" (Voices United 395)

OPENING PRAYER (in unison)

Creating God, we come with open hearts to worship you.

You have always been near to us, present in love and grace, walking with us on our journey of faith as a community.

Be with us now as you have been with those before us, that we too may have the courage to walk in new directions
as we seek to be Christ's hands and feet in the world.

In his name, we pray. Amen.

On the third day he rose again.

NATIONAL VOLUNTEER WEEK 2025

April 27 - May 3

VOLUNTEERS MAKE WAVES

The theme for National Volunteer Week 2025 is Volunteers Make Waves. Like a wave, volunteering is movement building. Water is in constant motion, always flowing, shifting, and transforming with every powerful wave or quiet ripple. Each individual volunteer contribution, big or small, creates momentum and has the power to influence and inspire, joining a wave of positive change.

At St. James United, we depend on the goodness of volunteers to maintain our mission in our community. A simple THANK YOU is never enough to express our appreciation.

Memorial Hymn Sing: Sunday, May 25, 2025

Each year, we take time to remember our loved ones through the fellowship of song. By selecting a hymn in dedication to your loved ones, you are contributing to the life and work of our church, supporting and enhancing the various programs and activities that make St. James United Church the faith community that we love. St. James Guitar Group and our Music Director, Amy Dalziel, will provide the music.

Simply print and complete the form below or write out your requests on a sheet of paper with the required information. Drop them off with your cash or cheque payment (payable to "St. James United Church") at the office, in the secure drop-box to the right of the office entrance, or by e-mailing them to info@stjamesuc.org. Payments can also be made by e-transfer to treasurer@stjamesuc.org.
